HOUSE TO TAKE UP BONUS BILL VETO

Effort Will Be Made to Override Coolidge's Action.

MEASURE RETURNED UNSIGNED

President In His Message Holds the Bonus Proposal Unsound Economically and Unjust—Asserts the Nation Owes No Bonus to Able-Bodied Veterans and That Patriotism Can Not Be Bought.

Washington, May 16.—An effort will be made in the house tomorrow to override President Coolidge's veto of the soldier bonus bill.

Action was postponed yesterday, when the legislation was returned unsigned to the house, congressional leaders intervening and securing postponement of a vote until Saturday.

President Coolidge vetoed the message on the ground that the measure would prove too great a drain on the national finances. Reports to this effect were made to the president by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and General Lord, director of the budget.

In his veto message the president stressed the necessity of governmental economy. He said enactment of the bonus would delay tax relief, the foremost need of the nation. "We have not reached a financial position where we may lighten the tax burden," said the president, "but if we now confer upon a class such a gratuity as is involved in this bill we delay tax relief indefinitely."

President Coolidge said the provisions of the bill were not in harmony with any recognized principles of national finance. Consideration for the whole country outweighed, in his mind, consideration for a class. Veterans themselves, he said, would be better off if not burdened by the taxes involved in the bonus bill. "Certainly the country would," the message added. "We have hardly an ill today that can not be laid directly or indirectly to high taxes."

The president said he could not recede from his purpose to do what he could do bring about tax reduction. "The expenditures in this bill are against the interests of the whole people," Mr. Coolidge said. "I can not believe they are in the interest of the veterans. We owe no bonus to the able-bodied soldiers of the world war. I see no reason for the enactment of this bill. It is not justified in the minds of the people. Patriotism can not be bought or sold."

"Service to our country means sacrifice. This bill would condemn people who are weak to turn over money to those who are strong. The money is to be taken from the returns of production of the people. The bill is a plain gratuity and I see no reason for its enactment."

MEANS SMALLER CROP

Decrease of 10 Per Cent Noted in Ohio's Wheat Acreage.

Columbus, May 16.—C. J. West, state-federal crop statistician, reports that more than 10 per cent of Ohio's normal wheat acreage has been abandoned, with a probable resulting decrease in production for this year of approximately 10,000,000 bushels. In this announcement he also makes the prediction that the total year's production will be around 33,000,000 bushels. The portion of the crop abandoned, however, he does not attribute to any appreciable extent to any other cause than damage during the past winter, due to lack of snow coverings.

Farm work over the state is somewhat behind the normal schedule, West finds. He reports that the wheat field abandonment is general in central Ohio, but particularly severe in Fayette, Clinton and Highland counties. In the northern three-fifths of the state the acreage abandoned is slight.

Despite the fact that the total acreage remaining for harvest in the United States this year is 5.5 less than last, the condition of the wheat fields is so good that the crop will be only slightly under last year's. West predicts. Spring plowing in Ohio is slightly behind normal and the demand for farm labor is lower than last year.

FINDS EXILE HARD

Former Kaiser Wilhelm Will Remain in Holland, However.

Berlin, May 16.—Princess Hermine, second wife of the former German kaiser, who is visiting relatives in Silesia, said that all is happy serenity in their home at Doorn, Holland.

Asked if Wilhelm desires to return to Germany, Princess Hermine replied: "Naturally, he finds exile terribly hard, but his present return to his fatherland is out of the question. 'Wilhelm is happy and healthy, now that the bad weather of the winter has passed,' she stated. 'I am anxious not to leave him alone too long. I will return as soon as possible. The kaiser has faith in Germany, but believes that the present government disregards the war guilt question, which is the foundation of Versailles treaty. America has contributed much proof of Germany's innocence in connection with the starting of the war.'"

Six thousand mine workers employed by the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal company, near Wilkesbarre, Pa., went on strike, alleging a series of grievances.

ADOPT REPORT OF CONFEREES

House and Senate Make Exclusion Effective July 1.

BIG MAJORITIES ARE ROLLED UP

President Coolidge's Expressed Wish Disregarded in Both Houses of Congress—Bill Restricts General Immigration to 150,000 a Year—President Expected to Sign the Measure When It Reaches the White House.

Washington, May 16.—The immigration bill conference report, making Japanese exclusion effective July 1 and restricting general immigration to approximately 150,000, was approved by the house by a vote of 308 to 58.

The senate also disregarded President Coolidge's desire and adopted the conference report by a vote of 69 to 9. Those voting against the report were Colt, Rhode Island; Ladd and Frazier, North Dakota; McLean, Connecticut, and Sterling, South Dakota, Republicans; Gerry, Rhode Island; Owen, Oklahoma, and Walsh, Mass., Democrats, and Shipstead, Farmer-Labor, Minnesota.

Leaders in congress expect President Coolidge to sign the bill.

Administration leaders in the house who opposed the July 1 date last week, when the report was sent back to conference, supported the report, after announcing that a vote for the report was not to be regarded as a vote against the president.

Soon after the house agreed the report was brought up in the senate. Senator Reed (Rep., Pa.) obtained immediate consideration for it and explained that the bill was virtually in the same condition as passed by the senate.

Senator Robinson, Democratic leader, asked if the state department now intended to negotiate a treaty with Japan. "Absolutely not," Reed answered.

"Then the bill recognizes that immigration is a domestic issue, which cannot be influenced by foreign nations?" Robinson asked. "It does," Reed answered.

In adopting the report the house developed an overwhelming majority against any delay in putting into effect quickly the Japanese provision which the administration had sought to delay in order that diplomatic negotiations might be entered into in an effort to settle the question.

Before adopting the conference report the house rejected by a vote of 246 to 33 a motion by Representative Sabbath (Dem., Ill.) to recommit the bill to conference for a number of amendments. He expressed no objection, however, to the Japanese exclusion provision of the report.

SURRENDERS AFTER BATTLE WITH POSSE

Farmer Kills Man Because of Attention Paid to Wife.

Belleville, Ill., May 16.—After a two-hour battle with a posse, Jacob Ott, 45, farmer, is in jail here. He told the sheriff he shot and killed Henry Baer, wealthy thresherman of New Athens, eight miles south of here, because of attention paid to his wife by Baer 15 years ago, and recently renewed. While his 11-year-old son, Willard, drove the automobile past Baer's home, Ott fired a shotgun, propped on the back seat, at Baer who was in the yard. The bullets entered Baer's neck, killing him instantly. Ott then fled to his home, pursued by county officers. He barricaded himself inside and fired upon a posse of more than 100 which surrounded the place, slightly wounding two volunteer possemen. The posse dared not return the fire because of Ott's seven children in the building. After a two-hour siege, two brothers prevailed upon Ott to surrender, and he was brought here to jail.

Oil Inquiry to Continue.

Washington, May 16.—The senate oil committee, which is nearing the end of its inquiry, will ask the senate for authority to sit through the summer so that it may be prepared to cope with any eventualities. The investigators do not wish to be without authority to act while the Sinclair contempt and the lease cancellation suits are pending in the courts.

Toledo, May 16.—General Isaac Sherwood, veteran congressman of this district, announced definitely at Washington that he will not be a candidate for re-election and "served notice upon all aspirants for the Democratic nomination to file early." CONTEST SEEN IN THE SENATE

Ratification of Report Exonerating Wheeler Scught.

BORAH TO OFFER RESOLUTION

Administration Leaders Reported Ready to Resist Any Attempt to Give the Montana Senator a "Clean Bill of Health," Which Would Sustain Wheeler's Charge That His Indictment Was "Framed."

Washington, 16.—A sharp contest is likely to develop in the senate when that body is asked to lift all stigma attaching to Senator Wheeler as a result of his indictment in Montana by ratifying the Borah committee's report "wholly exonerating" him of misusing his office.

Senator Borah announced that he would offer a resolution moving the adoption of the report, which held that Wheeler "observed at all times not only the letter, but the spirit of the law," in his legal services for Gordon Campbell, Montana oil man, for whom, it was charged, he appeared before the interior department. Borah presented this report in the senate Wednesday. Wheeler's friends are prepared to force the adoption of the amendment.

Administration leaders are ready to resist to the limit any attempt to give Wheeler a "clean bill of health," and thus brand the indictment as unjustified, which, in turn, would sustain Wheeler's charge that it was obtained by a "frame up." Regular Republicans are inclined to view the case in the same light as Senator Sterling of South Dakota, who acted as "prosecutor" in the Wheeler "trial." Sterling believes the committee report should not have dealt with the question of Wheeler's guilt, but whether the indictment was justified. For that reason he refused to sign the majority report.

The senate will take action on the proposed American participation in the world court of international justice, as recommended by the late President Harding and later by President Coolidge. Senator Willis of Ohio, a member of the foreign relations committee, predicted. Instead of indefinitely pigeonholing the world court plan, as had been indicated, the senate plans action before the Cleveland convention assemblies.

It was announced that the department of justice will continue its proceedings against Senator Wheeler, under indictment in his home state, despite the senator's exoneration by a senate committee. Attorney General Stone said he saw no reason for a change in the department's attitude and that no reason appeared for dismissing the proceedings.

RAIL BOARD INTERVENES

Locomotive Engineers and Firemen Will Not Go on Strike.

Chicago, May 16.—An order for 60,000 locomotive engineers and firemen, and the managers of 90 western railroads, to remain at "status quo" was issued by the United States railroad labor board, for fear the deadlocked wage dispute between the employees and employers will cause a tieup of transportation. Representatives of both sides were ordered to appear before the board on June 3, unless a settlement is reached before that date.

Foley Again Declines Leadership.

New York, May 16.—Surrogate James A. Foley again declined to take the leadership of Tammany Hall, according to a formal statement issued by Daniel L. Ryan, secretary of the organization. Ryan said the surrogate was ill in bed, exhausted by the powerful efforts that had been made to have him accept the post left vacant by the death of his step father-in-law, Charles E. Murphy.

New Ohio Postmasters.

Washington, May 16.—President Coolidge appointed the following Ohio postmasters: Hubbard, Olive G. Randall; Postoria, Fred M. Hopkins; Delaware, Hosea A. Spaulding; Maumee, John W. Kramer; Newton Falls, Charles R. Fennical; Salem, Frank J. Eckstein.

Actress Robbed of Gems.

New York, May 16.—Jewels valued at $20,000 were stolen from the apartment of Laura Sonderson, musical revue actress. The theft was committed by thieves who had lured the actress from her apartment by a telephone message that her husband was seriously ill.

COOLIDGE OVERRULED

Can Not Extend Clemency in Contempt of Court Cases.

Chicago, May 16.—Federal Judges Carpenter and Wilkerson declared, in reversing the president's pardon of Philip I. Grossman, Chicago saloon-keeper, that the president of the United States is not empowered to extend clemency to persons imprisoned for contempt of court.

Grossman was sentenced to one year in jail in February of 1921 by former Federal Judge Landis on a charge of contempt of court for violating an injunction to close his saloon. Efforts to secure a pardon for Grossman were started and the case was brought before President Harding, but Harding's death put a temporary halt to the proceedings.

Several months ago President Coolidge announced the pardon, and it then developed that Grossman had never served any of the jail sentence. Judges Carpenter and Wilkerson, sitting jointly, declared the president could not interfere in contempt cases, for to do so would rob the judiciary of its power.

Upon announcement of the judges' decision, Grossman was taken into custody by the United States marshal and brought into court. Grossman's attorney asked for time in which to take new legal steps, but the court, while granting the request for argument, intimated Grossman would have to serve the sentence.

Landis, testifying before congressional investigators recently, declared he had not recommended a pardon for Grossman.

Prisoner Pardoned.

Columbus, May 16.—Governor Donahy pardoned Dallas Dayhuff, confined in the Stark county workhouse in default of payment of fine for illegal transportation of liquor.

Art of Diamond Cutting Originated in France

The art of diamond cutting dates from the end of the Fifteenth century. Formerly diamonds were set in their natural state, after having been cleaned, or else were cut in a very rude and imperfect manner. But in 1546 a young gentleman of Bruges, named Louis van Berghem, by rubbing a couple of diamonds together, observed that they attrited and polished their surfaces reciprocally, and that the artificial facets thus formed acquired an extraordinary splendor. This observation was the starting point of the diamond cutting and polishing industry, which was almost exclusively localized in Amsterdam, the Detroit News remarks.

It is recorded that Berghem made the first trial of his improved mode of cutting in 1575 on three large rough stones which were confided to his care by Charles the Bold, duke of Burgundy. The new industry was greatly encouraged by Cardinal Mazarin, who caused the diamonds in the French crown to be recut, whence they obtained the name of the twelve Mazarins.

Vendetta

A vendetta is a blood-feud; the practice of the nearest kin executing vengeance on the murderer of a relative. In Corsica the vendetta is regarded as a duty incumbent on the relatives of the murdered man, and, failing to reach the murderer, they take vengeance on his relatives. The practice exists also, though to a more limited extent, in Sicily, Sardinia and Calabria, as well as among the Druses, Circassians and Arabs.

First Divorce Court

The first divorce court in England was instituted in 1858. The court consisted of three judges. At the first sitting five marriages were dissolved, and in the first year of the court's operation 38 divorces were granted out of 288 petitions. From the time of the Reformation up to 1858 there had been but 317 divorces in England, granted by acts of parliament. Until the passing of the divorce act in 1858 the theory in English law regarding divorce was the same as that of the Roman Catholic church, although in practice this rule was not strictly adhered to, and wealthy and influential persons, through parliament, secured freedom from galling ties. The divorce act provided that the wronged husband could be released from his obligation to an unfaithful wife, but gave no such recourse to an injured wife, unless the husband's offense in this direction was aggravated by other offenses.

Forethought

The small boy entered the shoe-maker's shop, and, unwrapping a small parcel, produced a size 11 shoe, very much the worse for wear.

The shoemaker took it from him, and, after looking at it, asked:

"Well, what do you want me to do with this? It doesn't want mending, does it?"

"Yes," said the boy: "that's father's slipper, and there's a nail sticking in it. I want you to put it right before he notices it."

"You're a kind little boy," said the old man, beaming. "You must be fond of your father."

"Tain't that quite," replied the small boy calmly. "You see, the nail's sticking right through the sole, and this is the slipper father spansks me with."

Playtime Important

It is only for the sake of the free life that material competence and knowledge of fact are worth attaining. Facts for a living creature are only instruments; his play-life is his true life. On his working days, when he is attentive to matter, he is only his own servant, preparing the feast. He becomes his own master in his holidays and in his sportive passions. Among these must be counted literature and philosophy, and so much of love, religion and patriotism as is not an effort to survive materially. In such enthusiasms there is much asseveration; but what they attest is really not the character of the external facts concerned, but only the spiritual uses to which the spirit turns them.—G. Santayana in Yale Review.

Roumanian Superstitions.

Ghosts are plentiful in Roumania. The Strigoi are evil spirits which on St. Andrew's night make their way for mischief into every house whose doors and windows are not anointed with garlic, the scent of that plant being intolerable to the ghostly nostrils. The Moroi are the spirits of unbaptized babes, crying for their mothers' breasts and not to be appeased save by sprinkling their graves with holy water for seven years.

HERRICK REFRIGERATORS

HERRICK DRY AIR SYSTEM REFRIGERATOR

The Big Difference In Refrigerators

The main object of any refrigerator, of course, is the preservation of foods. The refrigerator that will keep foods in perfect condition longest is naturally the refrigerator you want—provided it doesn't increase your ice bills.

The Herrick answers those requirements with facts—not claims. And it does even more. It actually decreases your ice bills while giving you more effective food preservation.

And why? Simply because the Herrick is far more than an ice box—far more than a cold storage place. It is built on the scientifically demonstrated principle that more than merely cold air is necessary to keep foods in good condition for any great length of time.

Perhaps the biggest essentials to scientifically correct refrigeration are—

- No. 1. Circulation of cold dry air.
- No. 2. Effective Insulation.
- No. 3. Air-tight construction.

That the Herrick has these necessary essentials is a demonstrated fact. Many proofs of the truth are visible even to the least informed purchaser. Others are hidden within the walls of the refrigerator, but nevertheless there, performing their functions so important to good health and economy.

HEALTH CRUSADE

American Red Cross Takes Care of Ex-Soldiers' Claims, Free.

Misses Carrie Palmer, Red Cross nurse from the Veterans Bureau, Columbus, and Agnes Butch, home service secretary of Pickaway county chapter, American Red Cross, this week made a tour of the city and county in the interest of ex-service men.

The visit was a health crusade in the promotion of general hygiene, especially in the case of tubercular patients, and in every instance found hearty cooperation. It was also to get in contact with those who need assistance in prosecuting claims.

The Red Cross has not forgotten the debt all owe these ex-service men and in every way is endeavoring to smooth their path and gentle conditions for them and their families.

Pickaway county chapter has its headquarters in room 17, Masonic Temple and takes care of all claims of ex-service men, free of charge. It is one of its big reasons for existing now.

MARK TWAIN'S PRESCRIPTION
TO AN ASPIRING AUTHOR.

Mark Twain was often subjected to the importunities of young and aspiring authors who sought his advice and in some cases, asked him to read their manuscripts. One of these had accompanied his request with an inquiry as to the right diet for an author, asking Mark Twain if it was true, as Professor Agassiz said, that fish was brain food.

Mark Twain replied as follows: 'Yes, Agassiz does recommend authors to eat fish because the phosphorus in it makes brain. So far you are correct. But I cannot help you to a decision about the amount you need to eat—at least, not to a certainty. If the specimen composition you send is about your fair usual average, I should judge that perhaps a couple of whales would be all you would want for the present. Not the largest kind, but simply good, middling-sized whales.'—The Mentor.

Our Wills

Our wills are queer things. They are like plaster of paris; for after they have been melted into liquid form they tend to "set." They do thus preserve the contour of that about which they have been molded. If it is a good cast, well enough; we make a cast for a permanent possession. Here it is—fixed and final! Is the lethargy of a standard pattern, no matter how excellent it may have been at one time, to prevent any future change and growth?—The Living Church.

MOTHER LOVE

Portrayed in Play at the Presbyterian Church—Successful Presentation.

Weeks of preparation under the faithful direction of Miss Reynolds were brought to a successful close in the presentation of "An Old-Fashioned Mother" by the young people in the parlors of the Presbyterian church Thursday night. The parlors were filled with an audience that was very appreciative of the splendid presentation in the various parts.

The Old Singing School under the direction of Miss Helen Marion, costumed in the elegance of bygone days carried the audience back to the days when the singing school was the center and circumference of social life. If was in these days of comparative simplicity that the three scenes of the play were laid. Centering about the farm home of the Old Fashioned Mother, these scenes brought back into prominence the sterling virtues of simple, true, motherlove.

In contrast to our modern tendencies toward ease and desire for city life in shallow selfishness, the self-sacrifice and loving generosity of the Old Fashioned Mother were brought out in strong relief by the thoughtful feeling in the acting of Miss Reynolds who took the part of mother.

The variety of old-fashioned costumes coming from here and there in our community lent a spice of humor to the more serious trend of the play.

PRIZE ESSAY

F. W. Buxton Tells Readers Who Made Calvin Coolidge.

Who made Calvin Coolidge? Margaret Foley, of course. When Levi H. Greenwood was president of the Massachusetts senate he opposed woman suffrage. She opposed his reelection in his district and prevailed. Senator Coolidge became President Coolidge on Beacon Hill and the signals were set clear for the road to the governorship.

Who made Calvin Coolidge?

Edwin U. Curtis, of course. When he was a sick man in that old brick building at the dead end of Pemberton Square the heedless policemen went out on strike to the refrain "Hail, Hail, the Gang's all Here." The sick man showed the strength of the stalwart, until finally Governor Coolidge sent a telegram to Samuel Gompers that tapped its way into national prominence and is today a sort of Magna Charta of the people's right.

Who made Calvin Coolidge?

James Lucey, the Northampton cobbler, of course. No explanation or argument is necessary here, but merely a reminder. The Herald published a facsimile a few days ago of President Coolidge's letter to him, which said: "If it were not for you, I should not be here."

Who made Calvin Coolidge?

Frank W. Stearns, of course. With as close an approximation to second sight as we may expect in these days and with an ability to see around the corner years before Einstein told us how rays of light are bent, this substantial, self-made, self-respecting Boston merchant, with his quiet sense of obligation to the community, discerned qualities which hardly anybody else glimpsed. To go to the Republican convention he left a governor, only to come back to pay his respects to a potential vice president.

Who made Calvin Coolidge?

Senator Crane, of course. He made Coolidge by showing him, in precept and practice, the way of wisdom and by vouching for him in high places, where his chance say-so was as his oath and bond. To the younger man he gave that mixture of personal attachment and respect of which he was none too prodigal, but always of mighty advantage to the few who won it.

Who made Calvin Coolidge?

The Republican party of Massachusetts, of course. A canny organization, with some bourbonism, some democracy, some vision, some solid traditions and no end of genuine appreciation of the merits of a trustworthy man. It always lined up behind him solidly, even when he displayed that reticence which, to the unknowing, was some evidence of ingratitude and to the knowing was merely Coolidgeism.

Who made Calvin Coolidge?

The people of Massachusetts, of course. They took him at more than his own modest valuation, whether he wanted to be a town officer or a governor. They had that which thousands call a blind faith in him. More thousands called it a passionate intuition.

Who made Calvin Coolidge?

His mother, of course, who endowed him with her own attributes; a father who taught him presidential ways with all the quiet vigor of the old Greeks, who preached moderation in everything; his school and his college; his classmate, Dwight Morrow and his guest of a day or two ago at the White House, William F. Whiting.

Who made Calvin Coolidge?

Calvin Coolidge, of course. From the reflective shoemaker and the furious Miss Foley to the complacent Frank W. Stearns and the watchful and discerning senator from Dalton came some of the makings, but the man himself had the essentials of greatness. Give another man those same toes and friends and he might still be as far away from the White House as most sons of Vermont.—Pulitzer prize-winning editorial written by F. W. Buxton.

When Forks Were New

The present-day fork, with its four prongs, was not developed until after 1725, and as late as the period of George III the wife of a gentleman in waiting to the king, about 1788, wrote that silver forks were used only by the nobility and foreign ambassadors, and that, since they had but three prongs, the knives were made broad-ended, so that one might use them to eat peas and catch fruit juices. It seems that the use of the dessert spoon was unknown at that time.

WORKOUTS

At Armory—Mellow and Patterson Finish Training In This City.

Wednesday afternoon Wally Patterson and Soldier Mellow, of Columbus, worked at the Armory, having arrived at noon to finish their training for the show this evening in Circleville. This exhibition promises to be one of the best boxing shows ever held within miles of here. The card is excellent; popular prices will prevail; service will be good and every one will be delighted at this show, the second to be pulled by the Armory Athletic Club. Patterson and Mellow finished their training by boxing a number of rounds last evening.

WALDO PATTERSON,

of Columbus, Ohio, who will be remembered for the fast, clever boxing he showed in his former bout here with Joe O'Malley. Patterson, who shows at 143, is admitted to be the best man of his weight in this section of the country, and indeed, one of the best welter-weights ever developed in Columbus. In his last battle he K. O'd Wary Wade of Ohio State in the third round, and he holds a win over Nig Blair. He appears against of Portsmouth, one of the cleverest boxers that ever came out of Dayton, where they make lots of good ones. Leever also weighs in at 143, and has met such fine lads as Red McDonald, K. O. Hays, Johnny Nolan, Mickey O'Dowd and many other good boys of the same calibre.

In the eight-round final, will be presented Frankie Wells, of Chillicothe and Soldier Mellow, of Columbus. This will be a bang-up engagement, full of pep, go and excitement. The fans will all like it.

The great local favorite, Carl Thomas, will assist in furnishing the second bout in a return with Joe Monoco. These two lads scored a great hit the last time, and will do so again. They will weigh in at 125 this time, a better weight for both of them.

The first bell will be rung on a scrap between Battling Toles, promising light-heavy of this city, and K. O. Barksdale, of Columbus. This battle will be a bear-cat. Tickets going fast. Get yours now.

SCHOOL GAME

Girls of Pickaway Defeat Jackson Players in Volley Ball.

The Pickaway high girls played Jackson high girls volleyball ball at Pickaway, May 9.

The game proved to be very interesting in spite of the score 23 to 40 in favor of Pickaway girls. However when it comes to baseball no good results came from either team. The Jackson base ball team is known to be quite fast, but must admit they met one equally as fast when they met the Pickaway boys. For a while the Pickaway had 4 to Jackson 0, but Jackson steadily held them down allowing them one run and climbed to six runs to Pickaway's 5. Then Smith, of Pickaway, tied the game making final 6 to 6. Due to time of dismissal of school, the game was called.

The Pickaway line-up was: Speakman, David, center. Wright, Emerson, pitcher. Evans, Tuck, first base. Arledge, Floyd, second base. Smith, Lee, third base. Alexander, Bill, short stop. Rhodes, Clarence, left forward. Arledge, Win, center forward. Dumm, Marvin, right forward.

A Truth To Ponder.
"The Christian is 'dynamic' only because his foundations are 'static.' His character rises like a growing superstructure on fundamentals that cannot be moved. If a mathematician were to insist on going back continually to prove the axioms he would never so much as cross the pons asinorum. Some things must be regarded as settled 'once for all.'"
Dr. David James Burrell.

THE BLAINE DITCH.

A joint session of the county commissioners of Madison and Pickaway counties was held Wednesday at the auditor's office in this city for the purpose of organizing for action on the ditch petitioned for by Ernest D. Blaine and others. Charles Foster, of Madison, was elected president and Bryce Briggs, secretary. The date set for viewing is June 11 and that for hearing is June 25.

AMUSEMENTS

Appearing in one of the most delightful picture comedies seen here this season, Thomas Meighan, popular Paramount star, scored an emphatic hit in George Ade's "Woman-Proof" at the Met theater last night. The production, which was directed by Alfred E. Green with the assistance of Mr. Ade, is excellent in every way and all who saw Mr. Meighan in "Back Home and Broke" will be delighted with this latest screen offering.

Mr. Meighan is seen in this picture as Tom Rockwood, a civil engineer who is required by the terms of his father's will to marry within five years after the latter's death in order to inherit an estate of a million or more. His brothers and sisters who are bound by the same command are ready to marry, but Tom fails to find a woman whom he can love, and as the final day approaches and Tom still remains unmarried, it becomes evident that the entire estate will go to an old home.

How the Rockwood family works to have Tom fall in love, forms the meat of the story. At the last moment he meets and loves a beautiful girl played by Lila Lee, but there are serious hitches in their love romance which threatens to spoil all the plans of the Rockwood family. These are finally adjusted in a romantic manner as the picture proves.

The production is excellent in every respect, the character portrayals highly artistic and the situations extremely interesting. "Woman-Proof" is a distinctly worthwhile comedy which none should fail to see. Final showings tomorrow.

MOTHER GIFTS

You could not give me toys in those bleak days;
So when my playmates proudly boasted theirs,
You caught me to the shelter of your arms,
And taught me how to laugh away my tears.
Having no books, you sang a shining word
Into my open palm, and closed it tight
So, when the neighbors' children shouted by,
Their hired nurse-maids herding them like sheep,
Then, that old dauntless look of yours would leap,
And, leading me beneath the western skies,
You woke their mirrored glory in my eyes.

Now autumn years are blowing swiftly by,
And I come empty-handed from my quest;
Save for a captured wraith of sunset sky,
A star or two, and last and loveliest,
The little shining word you gave to me;
Treasures no human hand may ever hold.
But you first knew their wonder and their worth;
You who have made me rich with more than gold.
—DuBose Heyward in "Skylines and Horizons."

New Mexico Boasts Four Stages of Civilization

Four stages of civilization have existed in New Mexico. The present or American; back of this the Spanish, which came with the Spaniards in 1540. When they came they found the civilization of the Pueblo Indian, with at least seventy villages, cultivated fields and extensive irrigation. Co-existent with them were a prehistoric race, living in well-built cities, with houses of stone, some of them four stories high, and they were cultivating irrigated fields. Their ditches and irrigated works were as well laid out as if run by modern engineers. They have entirely disappeared and we know only that they were here for an unknown period, beginning at least 1,000 years ago.

All that remains are the mighty ruins, some are in cities down on the plains and others are cliff dwellings, where houses are built on the cliffs, and some were cave dwellings. One building at Pueblo Bonito, which is one of the earliest apartment houses, had four stories and covered a greater area than the capitol at Washington.

Today, remarks Adventure magazine, the traveler can see at one time the nomadic Indian, the pueblo dweller, the Spanish occupation and the present Anglo-American development.

Middle Ages Heroine Had Practical Mind

One of several fortresses formerly owned by Lord Castletown's ancestors is Morett castle, now a ruin, but at one time a place of immense strength. Concerning this his lordship tells a grim story in his book, "Ego." The castle was besieged by the Irish, and the owner was unluckily captured in a sortie. He was brought up by his captors outside the walls and a parley demanded. His wife came on the battlements, and the enemy herald announced that unless the fortress was surrendered within an hour her husband would be hanged. "Give me time to think it over," requested the lady. "One hour," said the Irish. "One hour will do," replied the lady. At the appointed time both sides returned, the lady on the battlements, the prisoner with a cord round his neck and surrounded by his guard. "I have decided," she said. "I can always get another husband, but never another Morett. You can hang your prisoner." Which they promptly did.

It sure is, when it is "good" sleep. Such sleep that completely rests and restores body and mind can only be obtained when the body is perfectly comfortable and relaxed. Such relaxation can only come when the bedspring fits the body perfectly.

Rome Quality De Luxe Bedspring is scientifically designed to conform to the body curves, supporting every part without undue pressure.

HERE AND THERE

Fourteen persons were injured when an elevator in the Ashland building at Chicago fell from the eighth floor. A broken cable caused the accident.

Mrs. C. R. Wilson of Detroit was elected president of the Y. W. C. A. Endangered by the failure of the Capital Trust and Savings bank at St. Paul, Minn., depositors in the Capital National bank, a sister institution, were guaranteed protection by a merger of the latter with the Merchants' National bank.

Nearly 50 persons were killed by storms that swept the Hardoi district of India.

Arthur Vernon Guiley, a torpedo man on submarine O-12, was killed by an explosion on board the submarine at the Philadelphia navy yard.

Sheep in America

Sheep were unknown in the domesticated state in America until after the Spanish conquest. The beginning of the sheep industry in the New World dates back to the time of Cortez and his conquest of Mexico in the early part of the sixteenth century. Nearly all Mexican sheep can be traced to early Castile breeds. This is also the source of the early sheep in the western part of the United States. It is believed that the English colonists first brought sheep to Virginia in 1609. Originally all sheep probably came from Asia, but American breeds all sprang from stock imported from Europe.

Rhinoceros Can Scent Enemy Two Miles Off

Many animals give off scent through their feet. The bloodhound can "scent" his object many hours after it has passed.

Scent depends a great deal on atmospheric condition; on a sharp, dry day it does not "lay." On a muggy, still day, however, even human beings will scent a fox, as their odor sticks to surrounding objects, such as bushes and hedges.

Elephants have a wonderful sense of smell, either from breath or body, but the keenest-scented animal is undoubtedly the rhinoceros. One big-game hunter has stated that in favorable conditions this animal can "wind" a man for two miles. This may be considered a tall order, but in Africa the atmosphere is wonderfully clear.

What is the explanation of dogs and cats finding their way back to their original homes after being taken many miles away? The explanation is believed to be "ether." Scent is conveyed to animals "on the wind" by this means.—Exchange.

Fear Alligator's Tail

In several of the southern states alligator farms are maintained for the purpose of using the hides for shoes and other leather articles. It is said that the keepers of these creatures are more in fear of their tails than their teeth. When attacking an enemy an alligator will try to strike first with its powerful tail before using its cruel teeth.

Gorilla Not Ferocious Animal Long Pictured

Apparently the gorilla has been a much maligned beast. The old stories of his ferocity must have been all wrong, for now we are told on what seems to be indubitable authority that these biggest of apes are most sensitive creatures, and that the difficulty hitherto experienced in keeping them alive when captives was due to failure to treat them with the delicate consideration, without which they soon die of broken hearts.

What they really want is to be loved. Without that they fall into a lethargy of despair that passes for stupidity, but when the recipients of tender and delicate attentions they reveal the intelligence to be expected of man's nearest relations.

As Dr. Hornaday countenances these new characteristics of the gorilla nature, they cannot be ascribed to the ingenuity of overzealous press agents, as they are tempted to suspect who rather enjoyed—when at a safe distance—hearing about gun barrels broken over hairy arms, the threatening clash of monstrous teeth in preparation for attacks on lions and the beating of resonant breasts in the working of murderous rage.

But perhaps gorillas have changed and deteriorated since Du Chailu's day. That bold traveler and fine writer did not see them as pretty pets for ladies or as sufferers from any angioneuroses.—New York Times.

The Bulrushes

Opposite Cairo lies the island of Roda, where, according to Arab tradition, Pharaoh's daughter found Moses in the bulrushes. At the southern extremity of this island is the Nilometer, by which the rise of the Nile has been measured by the Caldees for 1,000 years. It is a square well with an octagonal pillar marked in cubits in the center.

FARM WORK

Behind Normal Schedule - Much Wheat Acreage Abandoned.

More than ten per cent of Ohio's normal wheat acreage has been abandoned with a probable resulting decrease in production for this year of approximately 10,000,000 bushels according to a report Thursday from C. J. West, state federal crop statistician.

In this announcement he also makes the prediction that the total pear's production will be around 33,000,000 bushels. The portion of the crop abandoned, however, he does not attribute to any appreciable extent to any other cause than damage during the past winter due to lack of snow coverings and ice storms.

Farm work over the state is somewhat behind the normal schedule, West finds. He reports that the wheat field abandonment is general in central Ohio but particularly severe in Fayette, Clinton and Highland counties. In the northern three-fifths of the state the acreage abandoned is slight.

Despite the fact that the total acreage remaining for harvest in the United States this year is 6.6 less than last, the condition of the wheat fields is so good that the crop will be only slightly under last year's, West predicts.

Spring plowing in Ohio is slightly behind normal and the demand for farm labor is lower than last year.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father in His infinite wisdom and tender mercy to remove from our midst our beloved sister, and member, Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas. Therefore be it

Resolved, That in her death this society has lost a most worthy and earnest member, one who with a warm heart enlisted in whatever was the best to the interest of the society. She will be sadly missed by her co-workers in our meetings.

Resolved, That in this dispensation of Providence we are again reminded of the shortness of life and are admonished to devote ourselves to our work now. For our Savior hath said "The night cometh when no man can work."

SOLDIER BOY ENTERTAINER

Noted Tenor Singer Will Appear at Boxing Show Tonight.

Caruso Toured Country With Redpath Lyceum - Leaves Shortly for Milan, Italy, to Further His Vocal Studies—No Extra Charge.

Thru arrangements with the management of the Armory the Soldiers & Sailors Orphans Home fund of Xenia will be benefitted, while thru the help of Soldier Caruso the entire city will be given a real treat in listening to a singer of rare quality. Soldier Caruso enlisted in the first division, eighteenth infantry. He reached France early in June, 1917, and received his baptism of fire in August in the Toul sector. From November to March he entertained in camps and elsewhere in France in company with many celebrities of the American, English and French stage, including Elsie Janis, Nora Bayes, Eva Chandler and Harry Lauder. In the battle of Cantigny Soldier Caruso suffered a shrapnel wound in the jaw. He got out of the hospital in time to take part in the battle of Marne, then in the Argonne drive in which he was gassed and shell shocked.

Later, returning to the lines with the 165th infantry, Rainbow Division, Caruso was bayoneted in the stomach at Sedan. He returned to the states in 1919. The effects of gassing prevented Soldier Caruso from singing in 1922.

One of the outstanding features of his career occurred in 1923 when he entered the Scotti test in Los Angeles. The test was held in Soldier Caruso's home city and resulted in his receiving first honors.

Caruso is well known in this city thru the fact that he has been heard various times by Radio enthusiasts in Circleville he having broadcasted over the wire for the largest broadcasting station in this country.

Since starting on this second tour Caruso has made it a point to visit every hospital and entertain for the boys who were confined there and many are the letters he has from the boys there who appreciated his efforts in their behalf.

Previous to going into service Caruso toured the country as Lyric tenor with Redpath Lyceum, particularly in the middle west and the eastern states.

The Los Angeles Times says of him in the "Scotti" test: "He is gifted with tenor voice of a wholesome robust quality, yet of lyric smoothness and sympathetic tone which wins his audiences completely."

Caruso leaves shortly for Milan, Italy, where he will proceed to further his vocal studies.

Having come in contact with many many boys of the Buckeye state in the army both here and overseas he would like to meet some of the local lads while here.

This will be the only opportunity for Circlevillians to hear him, hence make arrangements accordingly. There will be no extra charge for tonight.
